Petaluma 275

Help us continue to create a healthy and inclusive multicultural community where everyone has the opportunity to share their gifts and talents for the benefit of all. Help us by sponsoring our Organizer for a day.

Support Petaluma 275, we need to raise 365 donations of $275 to pursue this vision.

Can we count on your help?

How you can help

- Invite your friends and neighbors to support “Petaluma 275”.
- Host a gathering in your home for the PDLI to share about the work we are doing.
- Speak to your employers or your congregation about helping to sponsor our Organizer.
- Share a day with someone else, or gift a day to a friend. Any amount will help.

PDLI Vision & Mission

The Petaluma Day Labor Initiative’s (PDLI) program is best described through its Vision and Mission statements and its Long and Short term goals.

These are presented below.

The Vision of the PDLI is to create a healthy and inclusive multicultural community where everyone has the opportunity to share their gifts and talents for the benefit of the whole.

Our Mission is to ensure that Day Laborers are treated with justice and dignity, that their human and civil rights are respected, and that they are recognized as important contributing members of our community.
